Administrative Matters: A report on any communications that staff has received will be discussed at the meeting. Followed by any Public Comment.

Business: Arts Council - Agenda Items:

1. The monthly Financial Report will be provided and discussed.
2. The committee will report on the ongoing progress and budget for a three weekend Drive-In Movie event .The council is co-producing the event with Selma Chamber of Commerce. Tickets are on-sale and sponsors are currently being collected. The deadline for sponsors is September 10th.
3. Member Claudio Laso will report on submissions for Selma Originals and the timeline of events. Scripts have been selected and performances have been scheduled for October 16th & 17th.
4. Update on current and future online events. “Tiny Stage” is in progress thanks to Members Adrian Ocegüera & Jose Moreno. Both will report on acts filming this month
5. The Council will discuss the function and criteria of committees including an Actor Relation Committee. The council would like to extend the opportunity of running a committee to Alexis Macedo. Discussion on what committee she will be assigned and what her responsibilities would be.
6. Choreographer Michael Floras has offered to organize and direct a family show for Halloween that is available to stream. Captain Louie is based on the children's book, The Trip by Ezra Jack Keats, and is a Halloween centered story created for young audiences. The Jr. show currently allows adults to be cast; it is affordable and includes tracks. Michael has produced the production previously and will be able to produce the show in a short amount of time. The cast is a total of 7 people and will be filmed and streamed. Actors will social distance and wear masks during rehearsals.
7. Member Ben Deghand, and committee, will discuss the updated plan for an Online Talent Show scheduled to air in November.
